FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mobil Fund Inc. congratulates Board Director, Adrian Martinez for his new role as Chief Risk Officer (CRO) of Citi, US Retail Banking

CALGARY, ALBERTA. August 1, 2022—Mobil Fund Inc. is proud of and congratulates Board Director Adrian Martinez on his appointment as Chief Risk Officer - US Retail Banking at Citi. Adrian brings considerable knowledge, industry experience and skill to Citi.

In his new role at Citi, he will be responsible for end-to-end Risk Management of Consumer and Small Business Deposits and Payments, Small Business and Unsecured Lending. He will oversee the Retail Bank Deposit and Lending risk governance framework and risk appetite.

Adrian's previous position was as the Managing Director of Charles Towne Holdings, LLC ("CTH"), a Capital Markets & Financial Advisory firm headquartered in Charleston, SC.. The firm, via its wholly owned subsidiary, Charles Towne Securities, LLC provides Mergers and Acquisitions, Private Placements and other Financial Advisory services to companies located worldwide. He is also a former SVP of HSBC Banking with a P&L responsibility for a $33 Billion deposit portfolio and has Developed policy for Mastercard, and been responsible for numerous operational risk management and BSA/AML compliance programs.

Adrian is a graduate of the prestigious Marion Military Institute. He holds a BA from the University of California, Davis, an MA from Carleton University in Ottawa, and an MBA in Business Administration from Cornell Johnson Graduate School of Management. He also holds Finra Series 82, 65, and SIE certifications.

Adrian will continue to collaborate as a director and with other Board Advisors, Directors, and the Leadership team of Mobil Fund Inc. to provide high-quality advice. His unique perspective and objectivity will ultimately provide guidance to the company in its strategy and participation in global financial markets.
